STATINTL

Many thanks for your detailed letter of June 2nd about the appointment of [REDACTED] to a position in this Agency. The terms and conditions you outline and the general understanding as to his present and future status and responsibilities are in every respect acceptable to this Agency. I believe we are also in agreement that all relevant questions of law and administrative policy arising out of the dual responsibilities and extra compensation are adequately answered by the opinion furnished you by our General Counsel on May 9th.

STATINTL

I appreciate very much the courtesy and generosity you have displayed in this matter and wish to express our official gratitude for the substantial contribution that you, [REDACTED], are undertaking to make to the national security.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

Robert Amory, Jr.
Assistant Director
